Class History

When the Class of '66 arrived as sophomores, they found the usual amount of confusion upon entering a different school. They also became friends with students that represented the twelve Dayton area high schools.

With October came cheerleader try-outs. Cheerleaders Brenda Johnson, Sherry Flemming, Maureen Miller, and Nicki Coatney were chosen for the reserve team.

Along with the New Year came the election of sophomore class officers. Class politician, Bill Otto, was elected president with Pam Diehl, Jane Thompson, Jane Vogel, and Janie Powers to assist him as vice-president, secretary, historian, and treasurer respectively.

The Queen of Varsity dance was held on April of 1964 with Pat Vagedas and Darlene Bowling representing their class.

Juniors ordered class rings September 25 and 28 with some of the eager Beavers arriving as early as 6:30 a.m. on those mornings.

In November the junior class elected the following officers: Pam Diehl and Bill Otto as presidents; Karol Weir and Debbie Sargeant as vice-presidents; Martha Gray and Jerri Barlow as secretaries; Bev Boos and Kathy Engle as treasurers; Karol Hoos and Linda Fredericks as historians.

At DECA's annual Sweetheart dance, the junior class was represented by Pat Vagedas and Diane Ciambro.

May 14, 1965 marked the date for the National Honor Society induction.

That spring plans for the Prom, "Hawaiian Moonlight," were being made. The Jr-Sr Prom of 1965 was held at Wamplers Barn with music by Jimmy Mays' orchestra.

Election of senior class officers started the year as seniors. Officers were Dave Elkins and Judy Bowers as presidents; Janie Powers and Dave Harry as vice-presidents; Marty Gray and Kathy Clarke as secretaries; Sherry Basher and Jerri Barlow as treasurers; Cathy Stapp and Faye Wild as historians.

The Senior Dance was held April 15, 1966 at Wamplers Barn, and Susie Keydozsius and Jerry Picker were elected as Queen and King.

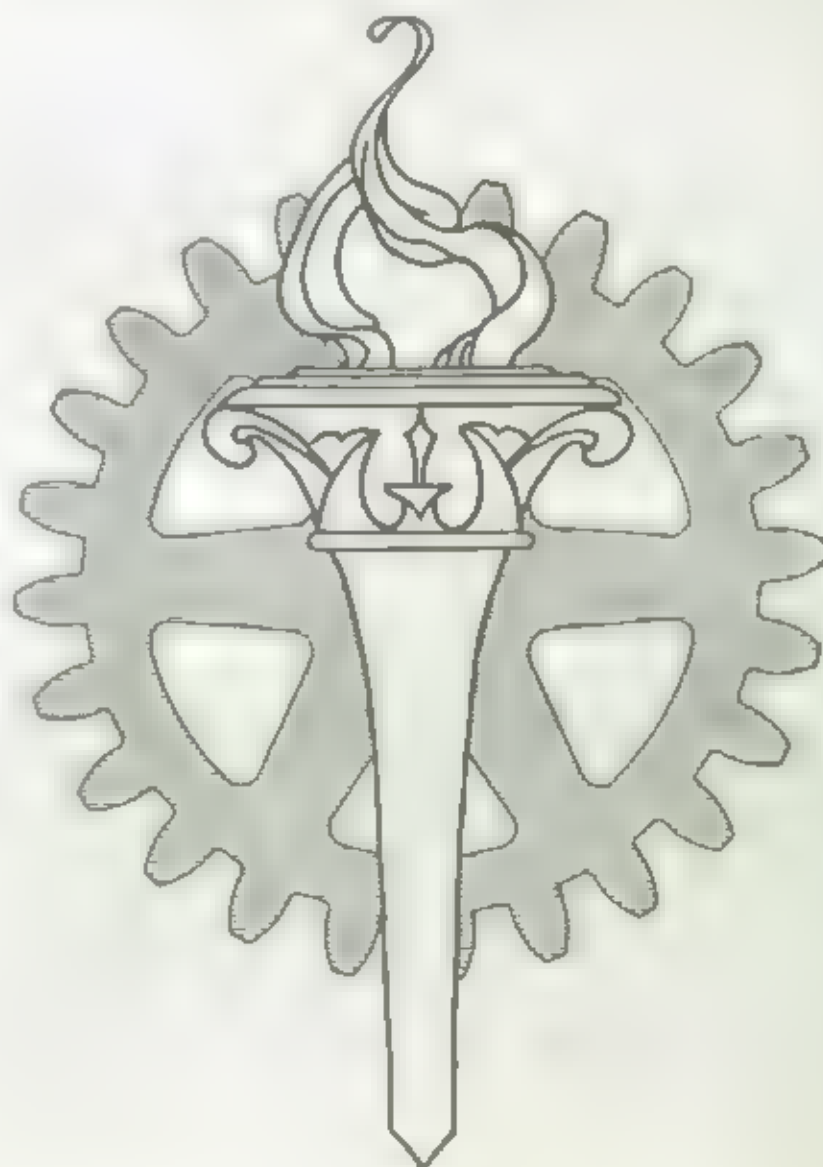

On May 13, 1966, the senior class presented their class play "June Mad," starring Cathy Stapp and Guy Mudd.

Commencement speakers announced May 27, were Faye Wild, Barb Trick, Jonelle Putnam, Kenni Lou Sucher, Sandy Hinger, Pam Diehl, and Bill Duncan.

Between May and July were activities such as ordering name cards, invitations, caps and gowns, and also marching and singing practices.

July 15, 1966 the Jr-Sr Prom was held at Wamplers Barn.

Baccalaureate exercises were held July 24, at NCR Auditorium and graduation, our final day as seniors, was July 28, 1966 at the NCR Auditorium.
